

(iv) The norms set by it for the discharge of its functions

MSRDC is a company set up for taking up the development of transport infrastructure. Its portfolio of works undergoes changes depending on the works that are handed over to it for execution.

The norms of work and its organizational structure undergo changes depending on the workload and nature of works handed over to the organization.